See pages 3-4 for details

DAY 2 / KANCHANABURI & RIVER KWAI

Today we head out on a trip to historic Kanchanaburi where the remains of the famous bridge over the River Kwai can be seen. We visit the Allied War Cemetery, war museum and the bridge over the River Kwai. After a lunch by the river the afternoon is free for you to enjoy Kanchanaburi town and its natural surrounding, or to do some optional horse riding along the river.

Overnight at hotel in Kanchanaburi (B L).

DAY 3 / ERAWAN NATIONAL PARK, JUNGLE WALKS & WILDLIFE VIEWING

After early breakfast we take a 1½ hour drive to the heart of Erawan National Park. Our team of porters will carry both personal and group gear, leaving you free to investigate the mysteries of the tropical forest with your guide. En route to our base camp, we'll get a look at some of Erawan's 300 or so bird species, and use the mammal signs we find to get an insider's view of this unique area. After a delicious lunch prepared by our field cook and served under our spacious field tent (complete with mosquito net), you can either relax at the camp or spend the afternoon getting to know the local flora & fauna, before returning to base camp for a cold drink and a hot shower. After a sumptuous Thai dinner, we'll peel back the darkness using a lighted insect station and headlamps to get a look at the nocturnal life of the forest. Walking distance for today is around 5-7 kms.

DAY 4 / ERAWAN NATIONAL PARK, WILDLIFE VIEWING

Our wake up call is a hot fresh cup of coffee or tea in the surprisingly chilly atmosphere at 600m. As the forest slowly wakes up, we'll be quietly climbing into our nearby tree platform for a view all the way to the Burmese border. The platform is a great place to see some of the resident great hornbills and other canopy birds, and get a bird's eye view of life in the forest canopy. From here we'll also be able to hear the fascinating and complex calls of one or more gibbon family groups in the area. Afterward breakfast we trek deeper into the forest and look out for elephant signs and other interesting flora & fauna. A packed lunch and some time to relax after a full morning of activity is followed by a leisurely walk out of the forest to be met by our transport at the trailhead from where we drive back to Kanchanaburi arriving in the late afternoon. Walking distance for today is around 6-8 kms.

Overnight at hotel in Kanchanaburi (B L).

DAY 5 / MON VILLAGE TOUR, THEN TRANSFER TO BANGKOK

In the morning there is a chance to visit a local Mon village. Here you can see the local villagers in their colourful traditional dress and observe some of their simple day to day lives. Later in the afternoon we will transfer back to Bangkok, where the evening is free for you to enjoy Bangkok's lively nightlife.

Overnight at hotel in Bangkok (B).

DAY 6 / BANGKOK, CYCLING TOUR, BIRDWATCHING AND BOAT RIDE

This morning we transfer to the Bangkok countryside for an easy cycling tour. We start at the Kamalulislam mosque, hub of the local Muslim community. Riding along canals we glimpse the harmonious lifestyles of Thai families, fish farms, rice mills, traditional Thai wooden houses and visit the old market town of Nong Chock. Along the way there are excellent opportunities to view the varied local birdlife. At Nong Chock we trade our bikes for boats and complete our journey with a river cruise down the Saen Seab canal.

Overnight at hotel in Bangkok (B L).

DAY 7 / BANGKOK FLOATING MARKET & HANDICRAFT TOUR, OVERNIGHT TRAIN TO SURAT THANI

Early this morning we head out to one of the most authentic and colourful floating markets in the Kingdom at Damnoen Saduak, a district in Ratchaburi Province. En route, we make a stop at a house where home-made palm sugar is produced.

After the market we drive to Wat Don Wai, an old community with a lively street market, where local food and desserts are prepared. We then continue on to Wat Raking, which is famous for its holy-water and fish sanctuary, passing orchards and orchid farms along the way. After lunch we visit a hand-made ceramics works, famous for its five-colour Benjarong ceramics. Originating in China these traditional designs were very popular around the mid 19th century.

In the evening we board the sleeper train for the overnight journey to Surat Thani, staying in second-class air-conditioned sleeping berths.

Late in the morning we'll take a walk in the Park with an experienced local jungle guide. After lunch it's time for an easy walk into the surrounding area to visit some small caves and a village temple. We spend the night in large treehouses (complete with proper beds, shower and toilet), right up in the forest canopy (see accommodation section below for more information).

Overnight at tree houses lodge in Khao Sok (L D).

DAY 9 / KHAO SOK, BOAT RIDE & HIKE

This morning is free for you to relax after the overnight train journey and to settle into your hotel (you may need to wait a little before rooms are available to check-in). In the afternoon we take a cruise along the canals of Bangkok's surprisingly rural western suburbs and enjoy the natural scenery and observe the daily lives of the people who live along the canals. We stop en route for an opportunity to talk to some of the students attending the temple school or take a leisurely stroll through vegetable and herb gardens. Continuing by boat we visit an orchid farm and the boathouse where the Royal Barges are kept and maintained.

Overnight at hotel in Bangkok.

DAY 13 / TOUR ENDS

ACCOMMODATION:

Our Standard tours use good quality hotels at approx. 3-star level, in which all rooms have air-conditioning and en-suite bathrooms.

Note: For our group departures, we will advise you of the hotel to be used on the tour about 2 weeks before departure. If you have specific requirements for hotels, then please request a private or tailor-made tour.

Hotels used on this tour (subject to availability):

Bangkok (3-star):

- Narai Hotel, Royal Benja Hotel.

Kanchanaburi (3-star):

- Kasalong Resort.

Erawan jungle camp:

- We stay in a comfortable & substantial camp in the forest here. Camp-beds and mosquito nets are provided, but you will need to bring a sleeping bag or blanket.

Khao Sok tree houses:

- There are seven individual tree houses and one tree house with 3 individual rooms. They are quite high in the forest canopy (one tree house is at a lower level for those with a fear of heights), complete with sturdy stairways and handrails. Facilities are basic but comfortable with private toilet and cold water shower, double bed and mosquito net (an extra single bed in triple rooms). Our backdrop is a limestone mountain with interesting caves to explore. A hundred metres away from tree houses is the dining and relaxing area which is located in a classic Thai house.

The long ladders up to the tree-houses in Khao Sok are unsuitable for children aged 7-11 due to the large steps, and alternative accommodation will be arranged lower down for families with younger children.

Khao Sok raft houses:

- On the Raja Phraba lake there are seven individual raft houses each equipped with double beds and mosquito net and a 3 room raft house with 2 single beds (or one double bed if preferred). Extra mattresses and alternate rooming arrangements are available depending on your family make-up. There are shared toilet facilities nearby. There is also a separate raft house to act as a restaurant and leisure area.

13 DAYS / SMALL GROUP OR PRIVATE TOUR / STANDARD TOUR / PRICES FROM ONLY £975 PP* /

Sleeper train:

• The sleeper trains in Thailand are of a good standard and popular with tourists. Each carriage has its own steward who ensures the train is kept clean and tidy, and from whom meals & drinks can be ordered to your seat. There is also a separate restaurant car. Each carriage will sleep approx. 40 people. On either side of the carriage there are two seats facing each other, with a window and small table. In the evening, the steward will convert these seats into beds for you, which have a pillow, sheets and a blanket, and a curtain for privacy.

At certain times of the year or where circumstances dictate we may need to use different hotels from those listed above. In this event alternative accommodation will always be of a similar standard.

Please see the Accommodation page on our website for more details of the hotels that we use in Thailand.

TRANSPORT:

This tour aims at bringing you as close to the real Thailand as possible and not cocooning you from it. To this end we use public transport wherever we feel that it meets our high standards - this may include 2nd class overnight sleeper trains, local buses and local ferries. We also use private transport including jeeps, song-thaews or pick-up trucks, and minibuses for the sightseeing tours where required.

TRANSFERS:

The tour includes both your arrival and departure airport transfers (24-hour service), and all other transfers.

After customs and immigration formalities you will be met by our representative, and after introductions, they will take you straight to your hotel (full details will be provided after booking).

INTERNATIONAL FLIGHTS:

In order to keep our tours flexible, and to make them accessible to as many people as possible, we do not include your international flights in the set tour itinerary or price.

However, we do hold an ATOL (UK flight sales license) and are happy to book your flights for you. If you let us know your ideal dates and departure airport, then we will be happy to provide you with some flight options that we can arrange for you. You can then choose whether to book the flights through us, or make your own arrangements. Either way, your airport arrival & departure transfers are included.

TOUR LEADERS/GUIDES:

For this tour we provide fully trained, local English-speaking Thai guides to act as your tour leader. Specialist local guides are also used in the National Parks.

Our local reps in all the towns and cities en-route are also at your service.

To help support the local people and economy, and also because we know it works best for you, our policy at Thailand Uncovered is to use only local guides and tour leaders for this tour. Please check our website for further details.

Note: For groups of under 6 people we may use separate guides in Bangkok and for the southern sections (i.e. you will not be accompanied on the overnight trains, but our reps will be there for all the other transfers for you).

ENTRANCE FEES:

The tour price includes entrance fees to all the tourist sites and National Parks mentioned in the itinerary.

TIPPING:

Tipping is not part of Thai culture, but has become customary but not compulsory in the service & tourist industry. Tipping is always optional, and any amounts paid should reflect excellent service.

It is normal and accepted for people to tip differently, and you should not feel under any pressure to tip any particular amount.

We are often asked for advice on common amounts however, and suggest that up to 5-10% of the tour price would be a suitable budget for this tour.

COUNTRY GUIDE:

For an in-depth overview of Thailand, please checkout the country guide pages on our website.

DATES & PRICES:

We have regular departures on this tour throughout the year. Our small group departure dates are listed on our website and on a separate dates & prices sheet (available on request).

We can also run the tour privately for you on any other dates for a small supplement, or customise it to make a tailor-made tour to fit your personal requirements.

Please contact our knowledgeable sales staff for more help on creating the right tour for you.

CLIMATE:

The weather in Thailand varies between the northern & southern halves of the country, and the time of year, and is controlled by several different monsoons. These monsoon rains start and finish at slightly different times every year, meaning the seasons detailed below are not fixed.

In the northern & central regions (including Bangkok & Chiang Mai), the 'dry season' lasts from November/December to May, before

In the south (including Khao Sok & Krabi), the 'dry season' normally runs from November to April, with most rain falling from May to October, with less temperature difference between them than in the North.

In Koh Samui & Koh Tao, the 'dry season' runs from December to February, with the 'hot dry season' running from March to August, and the 'rainy season' starting sometime in September and finishing late November.

Each of the seasons has its own charms and its difficulties!

British, European, and many other nationalities do not require a visa for travel to Thailand for stays of 30 days or less. If you are staying longer then visas are required. For further information on your visa requirements, please contact us or checkout the visa pages on our website.

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM:

We take responsible travel seriously, and as well as taking this into consideration when we design our itineraries, and select the people and agents we work with, we also donate £2 for every person travelling on of our Thailand tours. One of the organisations we support is the Border Green Energy Team (BGET), who provide hands-on appropriate technology training and financial support to village innovators in ethnic minority areas on both sides of the Thai/Burma border. More examples of how we spend your money and full details of our responsible travel policy are given on our website.

PRE-DEPARTURE INFORMATION:

After booking, we will provide you with detailed information to help you prepare for the tour. This will include helpful advice on money, health, insurance, tipping, climate, clothing etc.

Further information is also available in the County & Travel guides on our website.
